In Memoriam

RUTH SHERER

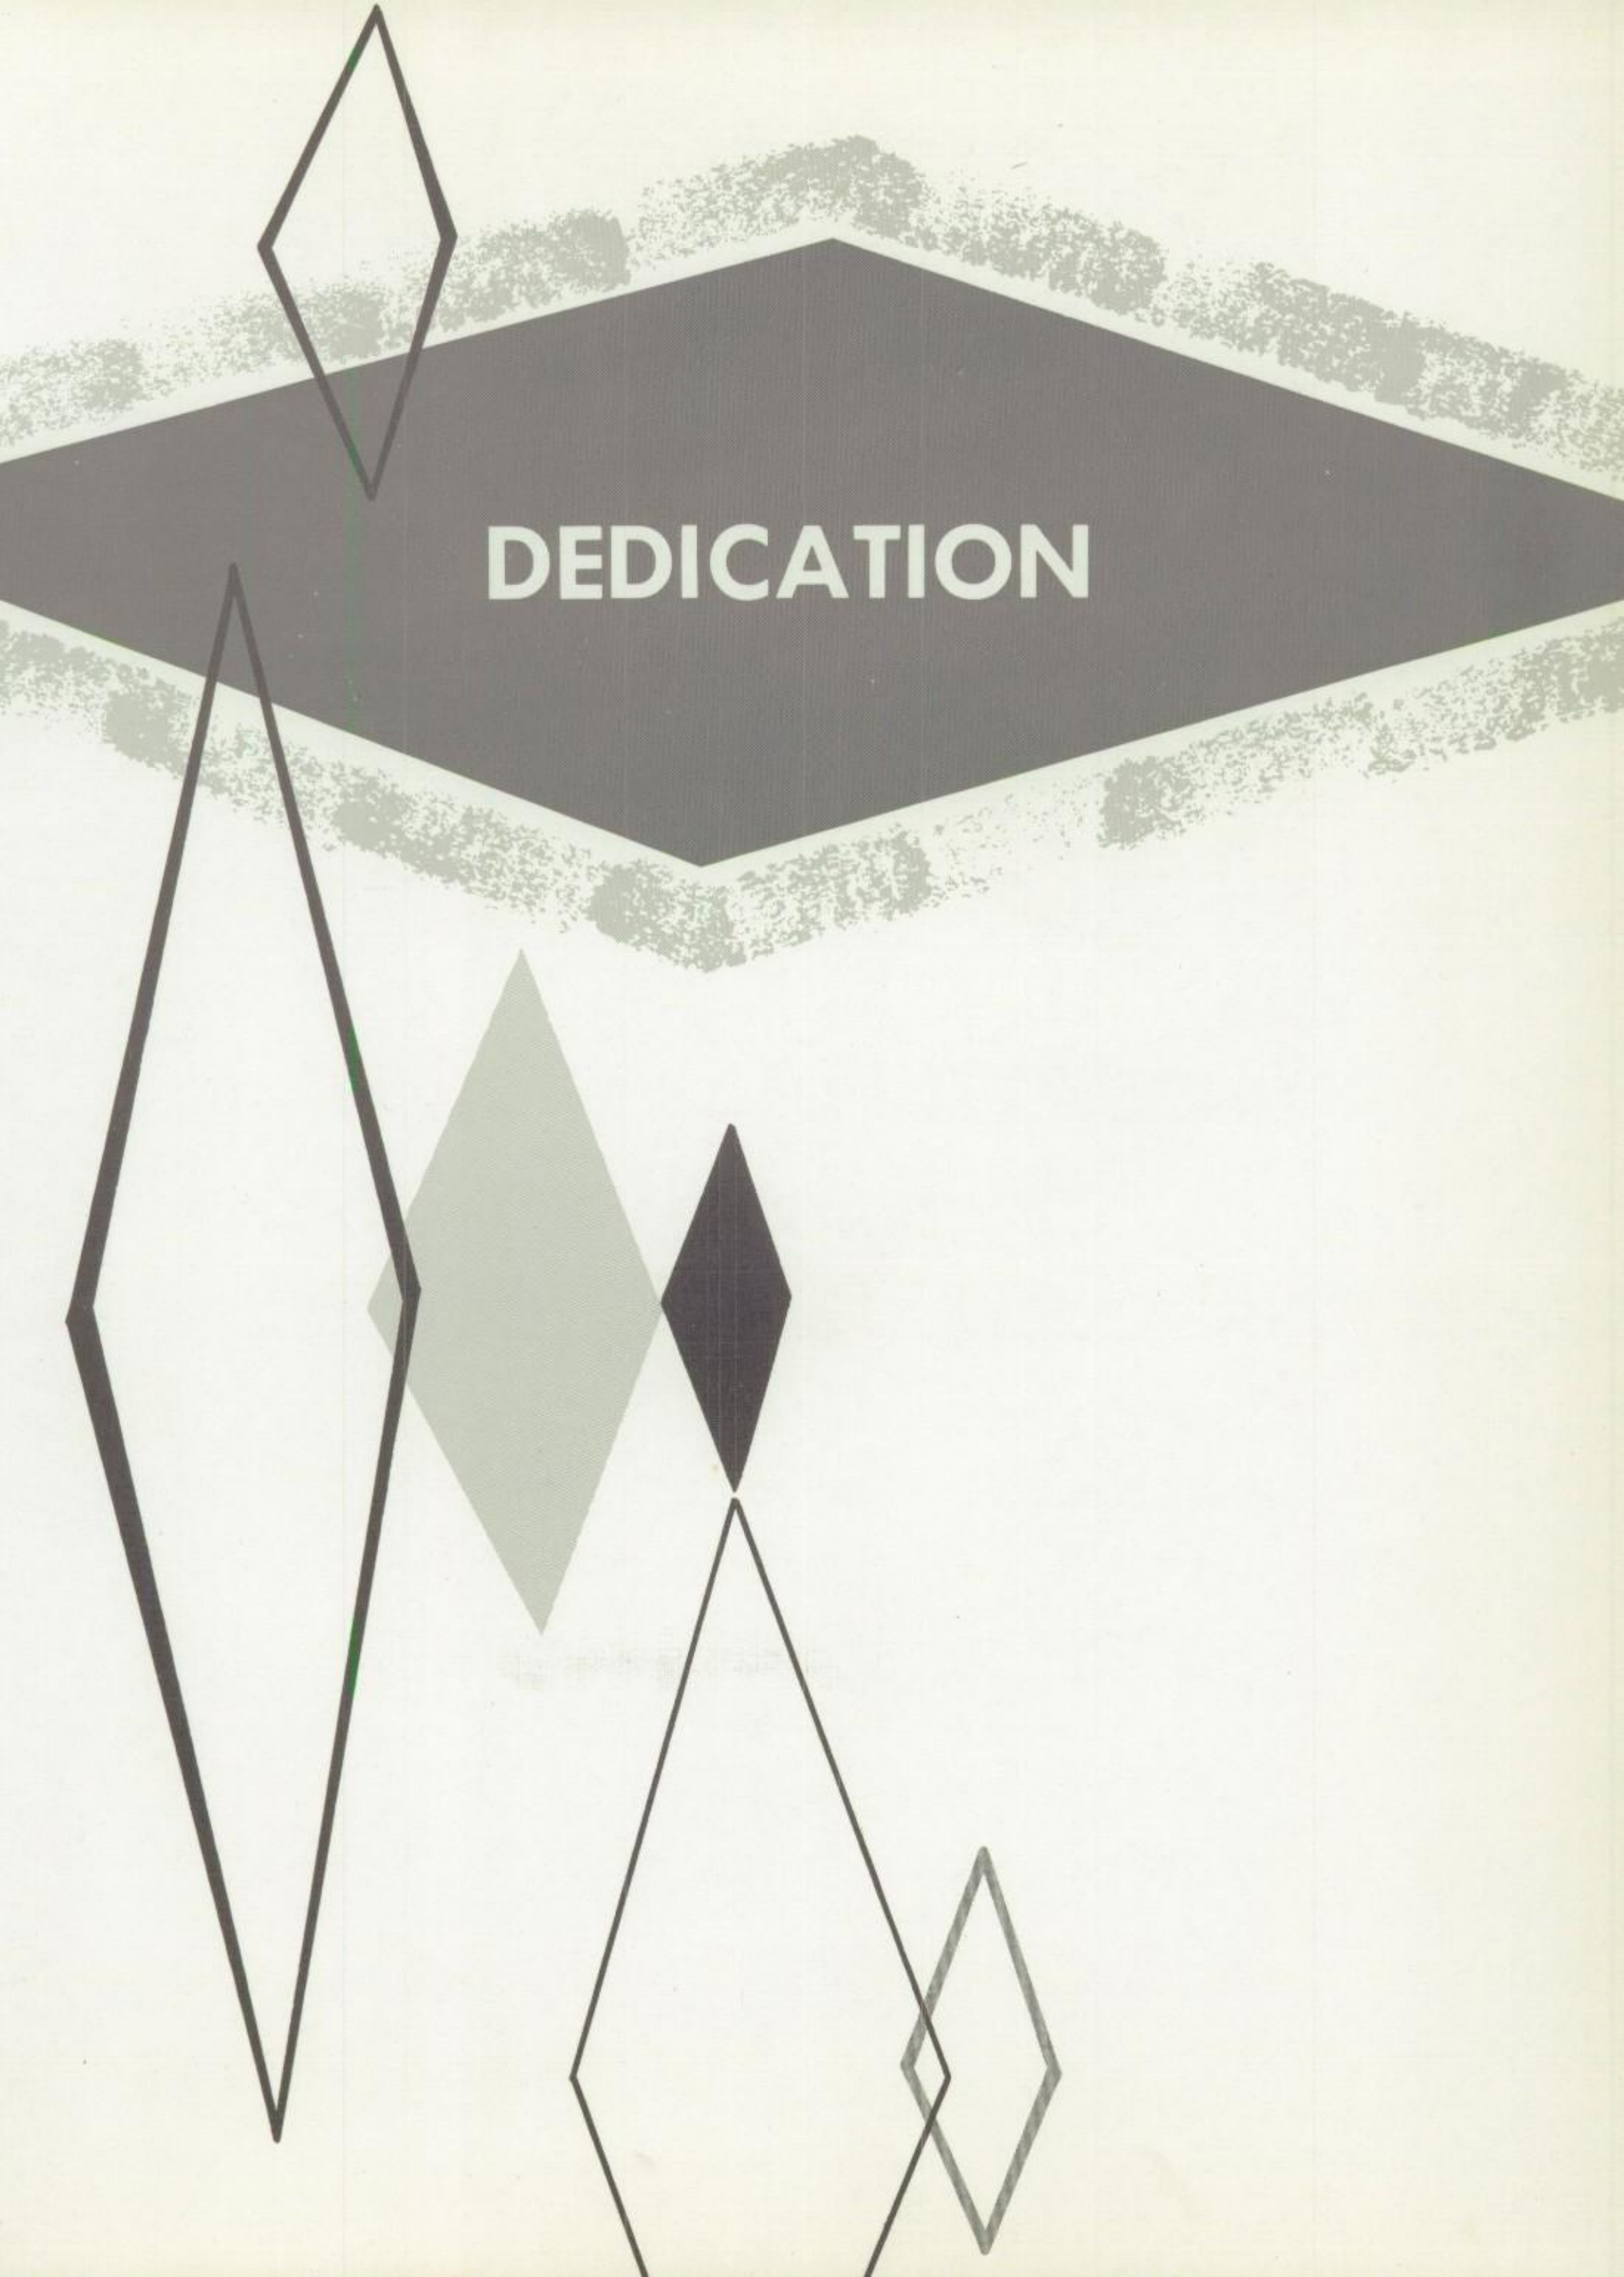

The Junior Class of 1960 dedicates this page in memory of Ruth Sherer.

Her name was Ruth we all knew
A friend so fond and dear,
Her soul so sweet and lovely
Yet weak and wan and weir.
To let the haunt of nature
Lead her to the fatal pond,
Her memories shall be with us
Forever and ever so long.

Her feet will never tread the hall
Her smile will never greet,
Her teachers and her classmates
That met her on the street.
We still believe she's here to us
We can't believe she's gone,
Her cheerful memories will remain
Forever and ever so long.

Tho Life must have its way, we wonder
Why she has gone so young,
From the world so wicked and wrong.
Perhaps she will land in the Higher
Where achievements never cease,
She will do her best and in earnest
Will never be met in defeat.

As she leaves this world of sadness
And her classmates all so fair,
That in the world beyond us
Shall be free from pain and despair.
We hope we will meet altogether
And Life will be much as the same,
But as the years roll swiftly by
Lest we ever forget her name.

The image features a large, dark, diamond-shaped area in the upper center, which serves as a background for the word "DEDICATION". This central shape is surrounded by a light, textured border. Below this, the composition is filled with various geometric elements: a large, dark-outlined diamond on the left; a medium-sized, light gray solid diamond in the center; a small, dark solid diamond to its right; and several other outlined diamonds of different sizes and orientations scattered throughout the lower half of the page. The overall aesthetic is minimalist and modern, using a limited color palette of dark gray, light gray, and white.

DEDICATION

We the Junior Class of 1961 take pride in dedicating this 1960 yearbook to Mr. L. A. Fisher.

He has taught for 30 years, teaching at Ja. Ce. Hi. for 6 years. He has taught American History, World History, and Government.

He has brought many interesting things to our attention. I'm sure the whole high school agrees that he is a fine teacher.

An abstract geometric design on a light cream background. A large, dark olive-green triangle with a grainy texture points downwards, occupying the right half of the page. To its left, several black-outlined diamonds are arranged. One large diamond is at the top left, with a smaller one below it. Further down, two solid black diamonds are positioned side-by-side. A thin black line connects the bottom of the top-left diamond to the top of the solid diamonds. Another thin black line extends from the bottom of the top-left diamond down towards the bottom center. The word "SENIORS" is printed in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters within the lower right portion of the large olive-green triangle.

Senior Class Poem

Our Last Year

Now is the time that we must say good-by
To our dear ole' Jackson High,
Always to remember the days we left behind
Leaving all our classmates and all our wonderful time.

We chose our flower, colors dear;
We chose our motto for the year.
"Forward Ever, Backward Never" shall always
Be our goal.
As we the class of "60" shall uphold.

The ending of an old life, the beginning of a new;
Jobs and college we will all pursue.
To be content with our new strife
Is to make the utmost of our life.

Farewell, dear Jackson High,
As we bid thee a fair good-by,
We're going to miss you, we admit,
As we step forward and to
The world we Commit.

CLASS COLOR:

CLASS MOTTO:
Forward Ever, Backward Never

Senior Class Song (Tune: Once In Awhile)

Verse:

Good-bye means our school days are ended,
Good-Bye means that we're leaving you;
Tho' our hearts will remember you,
Dear Jackson, this is what we ask of you.

Chorus:

Dear Jackson High, will you try to give one little
thought of us,
Nothing can ever be nearer our hearts.
Dear Jackson High, we will dream of the moments
we shared with you,
Leaving our thoughts behind never to part.
Our teachers we will remember,
Hum-mm-mm-m-m
In Class we can remember the things we used to do.
We know that we'll be contented with high school
memories,
Knowing you think of us, Dear Jackson High.

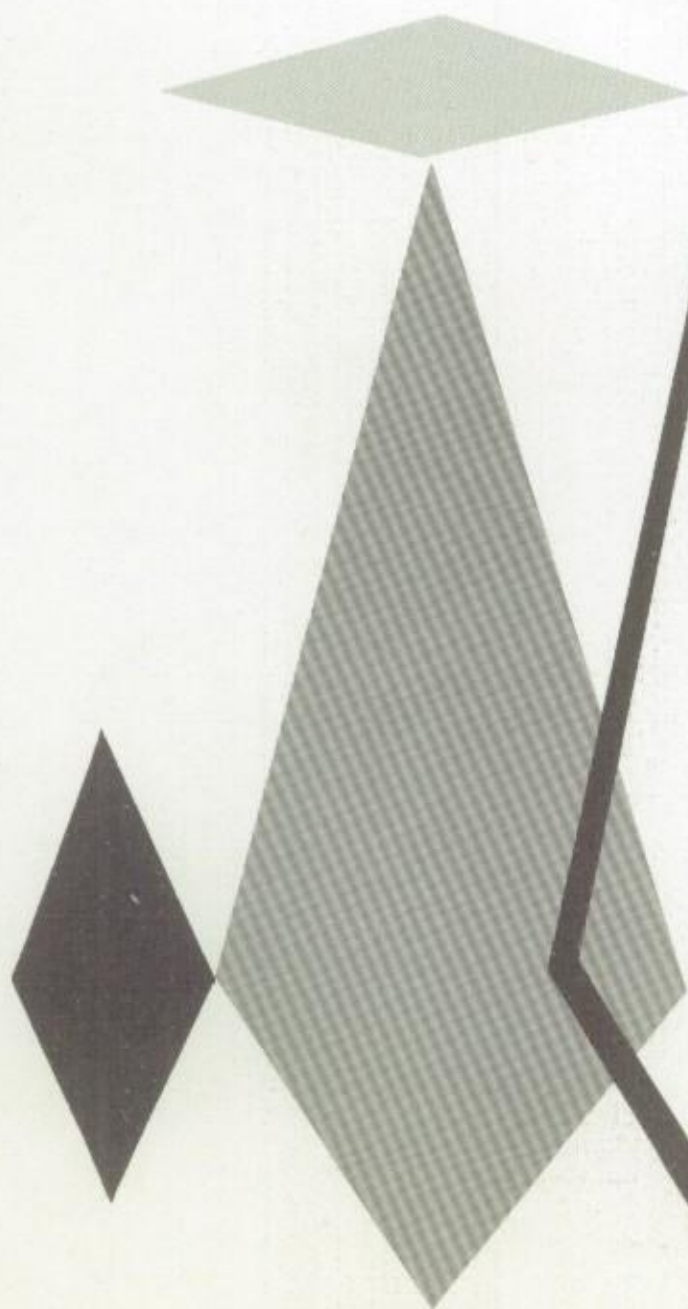

Dear Jackson High, the time has come to say goodbye,
We have reached our goal at last, for 12 years
have passed.
As loyal sons and daughters to stay ever true
to you.
Dear Jackson High, we'll be faithful to you.
Our friends we will remember.
Hum-mm-mm-m-m
To you, lower classmates, you have lots ahead
of you.
We know that we'll be contented with high
school memories,
We'll always love you, Dear Jackson High.

A grey, textured, brush-like stroke runs diagonally from the bottom left towards the center. The word "ATHLETICS" is centered within the large grey diamond.

AUTOGRAPHS

An abstract geometric composition on a light cream background. It features several overlapping shapes: a large dark grey triangle at the bottom right, a smaller dark grey triangle above it, and a white pentagon with a black outline to the left. A light green, textured, brush-stroke-like border follows the edges of the large triangle. Various black lines of different thicknesses crisscross the composition, some forming outlines and others as standalone strokes.
